42nd Annual Meeting of Cheiron: The International Society for the History of Behavioral & Social Sciences June 24-27, 2010 ♦ LeMoyne College, Syracuse, NY

Cheiron is the international society for scholars working on the history, methodology and development of the human sciences. The Society examines the evolution of scientific research and practices in the fields of anthropology, sociology, psychology, psychoanalysis and medicine. Prominent scholars gather at this annual, interdisciplinary conference to discuss historiographical, philosophical and methodological aspects of the behavioral and social sciences. This is the best meeting of the year to promote your books on psychology and the history of psychology, philosophy of science, history of science, and education in the behavioral and social sciences.

2010 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Frederic Gleach (Senior Lecturer and Curator of the Anthropology Collections, Cornell University): "The Americanist Tradition in Anthropology as an Interdisciplinary Locus". Gleach studies the anthropology and archaeology of North America and the Caribbean, with particular focuses on Virginia Indians in colonial and post-colonial history, the Pacific Northwest, Puerto Rico and Cuba, and the Yucatan. His writings include works on museums and visual and material culture, processes of representation and identity, warfare and exchange, and the histories of anthropology and archaeology. CHEIRON BOOK AWARD: John Carson: The Measure of Merit (Princeton University Press).

The LIBRARY OF SOCIAL SCIENCE BOOK EXHIBIT will be a featured component of the Cheiron meeting. Located at the center of the meeting space, our exhibit will offer conferees a unique opportunity to buy books from a comprehensive collection of the latest and most significant titles in the field. Scholars will review books, catalogues and promotional literature in a setting conducive to thoughtful evaluation for research and classroom use.

Our professional exhibit managers actively promote titles by distributing flyers and catalogues, discussing books with conferees, selling books on-site using publisher-supplied order forms, and urging faculty to consider titles for course adoption and library acquisition. Attendees at this conference look for teaching and research materials in all domains of the behavioral and social sciences, the history of science and ideas, philosophy and methodology, and the works of leading researchers and theorists. Please fill out and fax your reservation as soon as possible.

Shipping information will follow. Please fill in and fax your reservation now to hold a place for your press.
