66th Annual Meeting of the Philosophy of Education Society April 8-12, 2010 • San Francisco, CA

Philosophy of Education studies the purpose, methods and ideals of education as a societal institution and, more broadly, as the process of human existential growth. The exciting Annual Meeting of the PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION SOCIETY brings together leading international scholars and researchers to discuss and debate education's possibilities, problems and aspirations. This is the best meeting of the year to promote your books and journals on education from a philosophical, sociological, anthropological, psychological and religious perspective.

2010 KEYNOTE SPEAKERS: Lorraine Code (York University) is a specialist in feminist epistemology & the politics of knowledge, 20th century French philosophy, ecological theory and post-colonial theory. Her most recent book is Ecological Thinking: The Politics of Epistemic Location (Oxford University Press). Audrey Thompson (University of Utah), is president of PES. Her research focuses on education's social foundations, cultural and political pragmatism, African-American & feminist epistemologies, and moral philosophy.

The Library of Social Science book exhibit will once again be a featured component of the conference—located at the center of the meeting space near registration and coffee breaks. The exhibit will offer attendees a unique opportunity to buy books from a comprehensive collection of the latest and most significant titles in the field.

Our professional exhibit managers actively promote titles by distributing flyers and catalogs, discussing books with conferees, selling books on-site using publisher-supplied order forms and urging faculty to consider titles for course adoption and library acquisition. Attendees at this conference look for teaching and research materials on all aspects of education.

Please fill in and fax your reservation as soon as possible. Shipping information will follow.
