27th Annual Winter Roundtable on Cultural Psychology and Education: “Act Together: Hope of Community” February 19-20, 2010 ★ Teachers College, Columbia University

The Annual Winter Roundtable on Cultural Psychology and Education—sponsored by Teachers College at Columbia University—is the longest running professional program in the United States devoted solely to cultural issues in psychology and education. This large, exciting event brings together scholars, practitioners, researchers, social change agents and students to examine race, ethnicity, social class, gender, sexual orientation, and religious affiliation in psychology and education.

FEATURED SPEAKERS AT THIS YEAR’S ROUNDTABLE INCLUDE: Etiony Aldarondo (University of Miami); Nancy Boyd-Franklin (Rutgers University); Lydia P. Buki (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign); Michelle Knight-Diop (Teachers College, Columbia University); Teresa LaFromboise (Stanford University); Norweeta Milburn (UCLA); Michael Mobley (Rutgers University); Eduardo Morales (California School of Professional Psychology, Alliant International University); Thomas Parham (University of California, Irvine); Rockey R. Robbins (University of Oklahoma); Derald Wing Sue (Teachers College, Columbia University); Rebecca Toporek (San Francisco State University).

TYPICAL PANELS & SESSIONS INCLUDE: African American Education in a Hegemonic Society ❖ Preparing Culturally Relevant Educators and Counselors ❖ Critical Inquiry on Privilege, Injustice and Resistance ❖ Cultural Values and Clinical Attributions: The Role of Multicultural Knowledge and Awareness ❖ Contemporary Issues in Counseling Persons of Black African Ancestry ❖ Working With Transgender Individuals ❖ “Excessive Thinking” as an Indigenous Chinese Causal Explanation for Mental Illness ❖ Religious Profiling After 9/11: The Experience of Sikhs and Muslims ❖ The History and Current Relevance of Chicane/o Psychology ❖ Responding to Stereotype Threat: Educating 21st Century Students for Sustainable Global Living ❖ Asian Indian Youths’ Career Aspirations ❖ Cultural Identity, Intergenerational Family Conflict and Psychological Functioning among Chinese and Korean Americans ❖ Promoting Racial Equity in Schools

The Library of Social Science is once again organizing the publication exhibit for this event. An entire room, 177 Grace Dodge Hall, will be dedicated to the book exhibit—directly adjacent to registration and coffee breaks. Our exhibit is a major attraction of this meeting, offering participants an opportunity to select from a comprehensive collection of the latest and most significant titles in the field.

This is the best meeting of the year to promote your books and journals on multiculturalism, race, social class, gender, sexual orientation, counseling, social work, education and psychology to leaders in the field who seek monographs and texts for research and course use.

Our professional exhibit managers will be on-site from the beginning of the conference to its conclusion. We actively promote your books by discussing them with conferees, distributing promotional material, selling books on-site using publisher-supplied order forms, and urging attendees to consider titles for course adoption and library acquisition.

Please fill in and fax your reservation now to hold a place for your press.
