Annual Meeting of the Canadian Anthropology Society (CASCA): "The Greening of Anthropology: Reconfiguring Our Work for the 21st Century"
St. Thomas U., Fredericton, New Brunswick ★ May 11-14, 2011

With more than 500 members worldwide, the Canadian Anthropology Society (CASCA) is Canada's largest and most prominent organization promoting anthropological research and teaching. This year's conference brings together anthropologists, sociologists, ethnographers, scholars and theorists to examine the changing environment—both natural and built—in which we live, and how Anthropology can be revitalized to best describe and understand the radical and rapid social and technical changes occurring around us. Attendees will present the latest scholarship and look to the future of the field through such topics as the power of states and transnational corporations; the "greening" of business practices through land use and appropriation of local knowledge; new "collaborations" with indigenous peoples; societal changes resulting from a shifting global economy; social movements and radical groups; global health politics; and gay, lesbian and transgendered communities.

Focusing on socially and politically relevant work, CASCA's meeting is one of the most exciting anthropological conferences of 2011.

TYPICAL CASCA PRESENTATIONS INCLUDE: Religion, Ritual and Representation ★ The Sexual Body ★ The Construction of the Child ★ Locating the Other in Yourself ★ Aboriginal Peoples in Cities ★ Political Violence ★ Nature/Culture and Folk Knowledge ★ Human Nature ★ Cultural Translation and Hybridity ★ On the Intermingling of Imagination, Fantasy, Memory, Emotion in the Practice of Everyday Life ★ Language and Identity: Politics and Socialization ★ Masculine, Feminine, Plural: Gender Games and Gendered Games ★ Work, Gender and the Life Course ★ Revisiting the "Human" in the Anthropology of Biotechnology ★ Political Passions: A New History of Human Nature? ★ Images of Violence in Latin America ★ New Directions in Material Culture Studies ★ The Education of the Senses ★ Facing Hip Hop Culture ★ Muslim Migrants in Urban Settings ★ Unbecoming: Dehumanizing Projects ★ Anthropology and Aging ★ Cosmological Conceptions of Nature and Culture ★ Suicide and Identity ★ The Science of Mind and Pattern ★ The Limit of Identity and the Place of Knowledge ★ Indigenous Rights on the African Continent

The LIBRARY OF SOCIAL SCIENCE BOOK EXHIBIT will once again be a featured component of the CASCA meeting. Our exhibit will be located at the center of the meeting space—along with registration and near coffee breaks—in the Dr. Daniel O'Brien Study Hall of St. Thomas' Margaret McCain Norrie Building. This will offer conferees a unique opportunity to buy books from a comprehensive collection of titles from the major publishers. Our professional exhibit managers actively promote titles by distributing flyers and catalogs, discussing books with attendees, selling books on-site using publisher-supplied order forms, and urging faculty to consider titles for course adoption and library acquisition.

This is one of the best opportunities of the year to reach prominent educators seeking texts, titles for assigned readings, and research materials on all aspects of Anthropology. Space is limited. Please fill out and fax your reservation form as soon as possible to reserve a space for your press.
