National Multicultural Conference & Summit (NMCS) 2011:

“Unification through Diversity: Bridging Psychological Science & Practice in the Public Interest” ★ January 27-28, 2011 ★ Seattle, WA

Every two years, the National Multicultural Conference and Summit (NMCS) brings together psychologists, social workers, and other professionals to present and discuss research on multicultural psychology and diversity. The 2011 conference will examine social justice, race and ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender, physical disabilities, social class and age in order to promote the psychological well-being of historically marginalized groups. Hosted by several Divisions of the American Psychological Association, this is one of the most exciting conferences of 2011—expected to attract over 1,000 attendees.

This is one of the best meetings of the year to reach an audience of influential psychologists—instrumental in selecting books for courses and library acquisition.

2009 KEYNOTE SPEAKERS: Patricia Arredondo—“Considering Immigrants from Psychohistorical Perspectives.” Dr. Arredondo has dedicated her career to addressing psychology and counseling: immigrants’ transitions and identity development, multicultural competencies, Latina/o psychology, and organizational diversity. Linda Mona—“Disability, Sexuality, and Intimacy.” Dr. Mona focuses on the sexual lives of people with disabilities. Gargi Roysircar—“Therapist, Heal Society and Thyself.” Dr. Roysircar educates teams in disaster trauma, and in self-care to prevent compassion fatigue. Rev. Dr. Jamie Washington—“Intersections of Race, Gender, Religion, and Sexual Orientation.” Lisa Porché-Burke—“Where is Your Heart? A Journey Towards Inclusiveness.” Dr. Porché-Burke is an internationally known expert on multiculturalism.

TYPICAL PANELS & SESSIONS INCLUDE: Taking Action Against Racism ★ Gerodiversity & Social Justice ★ Health Disparities & Individuals with Disabilities ★ Psychology of Men and Masculinity ★ Asian-American Women in Therapy: Feminist Reflections on Growth & Transformation ★ Community Engagement, Social Justice & Cultural Complexities ★ Interpersonal Violence in Marginalized Communities ★ Expressing Multiple Cultural Identities through Performance Poetry & Film ★ Narratives of Social Justice: Moving from Political Correctness to Personal Compassion ★ Reflections on Invisible Aspects of Identity: Holding Our Own Mirrors ★ Anger/Rage Management with Native American & Hawaiian Patients ★ Psychologists’ Role in Illegal Interrogations & APA’s Position on Torture ★ The Culture of Psychology: Privilege, Power & Oppression in Therapeutic Practice

Library of Social Science’s book exhibit will once again be a central component of NMCS. Located at the center of the meeting space, our exhibit offers conferees a unique opportunity to buy books from a comprehensive collection of the latest and most significant titles on the full range of psychology and multicultural topics. Our professional exhibit managers actively promote titles by distributing flyers and catalogs, discussing books with conferees, selling books on-site using publisher-supplied order forms, and urging faculty to consider titles for course adoption and library acquisition.

Attendees seek professional literature and textbooks covering all areas of psychology. This is the best opportunity of the year to promote your titles on multicultural psychology, ethnic studies, women’s studies, gay and lesbian studies, and culturally-specific aspects of counseling, psychology, social work and teaching. Books addressing gender, sexuality, disability, family life, human development, prejudice and discrimination are also on target. Space is limited. Please fill out and fax your reservation form now to hold a place for your press.
