Council for European Studies' 19th International Conference of Europeanists (CES) ★ March 22-24, 2012 ★ Boston, MA

Founded in 1970, CES produces and supports outstanding, multi-disciplinary research in European Studies and how lessons from European history and integration can be applied to contemporary issues of global security, prosperity and democracy. This year's conference will explore the political, economic, cultural, and intellectual diversities within Europe. CES continues to grow in size and prominence and—with 1,000 people expected to attend this conference—is the best opportunity of the year to promote your titles on all aspects of European studies, including history, politics, migration, multiculturalism, integration, democratization, and colonial/post-colonial and minority studies.

PLENARY SPEAKERS INCLUDE: "What Divides—and Unites—Europeans?": Michèle Lamont (Professor of Sociology, African & African American Studies and European Studies, Harvard University), Cathie Jo Martin (Professor of Political Science, Boston University), Uta G. Poiger (Professor of History, Northeastern University), Kristen Ghodsee (Professor of Gender & Women's Studies, Bowdoin University).

TYPICAL SESSIONS AND PANELS INCLUDE: An Institutional Perspective of the EU at the UN ❖ The Economic Crisis in Central Europe ❖ Gendered Perspectives on Integration Discourses & Measures ❖ Religious Transnational Networks in the European Economic Community ❖ The Politics of Immigration Policy in Europe ❖ Germany in the Last Year of the War ❖ "Proud to Be Arab Even if I'm Not": Identity Frames in Contemporary France ❖ Is Neo-Nationalism the New National Socialism? ❖ Public Opinion & Support for the EU ❖ Europeanism, Modernity & National Identity ❖ Language Diversity in Europe ❖ How Gender Aware is the EU? ❖ Lesbian & Gay Mobilization, Policy-Making & the State in Spain ❖ The Sustainability of the Euro Area Re-examined ❖ Immigration & Social Solidarity in a Time of Crisis: Europe & the US in the New Century ❖ What Is a French Philosopher? ❖ Linguistic Human Rights & European Integration ❖ Citizenship & Diversity in Contemporary Europe ❖ The Institutionalization of the European Parliament: A Sociological History of Supranational Politics ❖ Conflicting Visions on Europe within EU Institutions ❖ Europe as a Space of Mobility ❖ The Impact of Europeanization on Turkish Modernization ❖ Memory Politics in Comparative Perspective ❖ Freedom of Religion Crucified? Symbols, Secularism & Human Rights before the European Courts ❖ Taming Modernity: European Experiences in the 20th Century ❖ The Politics of the Far Right ❖ Culture, Sport & National Identity ❖ Transnationalizing Memory: Can Europeans "Remember" Together? ❖ Challenges to Representative Democracy in the EU ❖ Transnational Anthropologies of Europe ❖ Building Eurafrica: Reviving Colonialism through European Integration, 1920-1960 ❖ The Uses of History: The Contentious Legacy of 1989 Twenty Years Later ❖ Transnational Social Movements ❖ European Security Governance ❖ Anti-Americanism in Britain, France, Germany & Poland ❖ Between Atlanticism & Anti-Americanism: The Image of the US in Northern Europe ❖ Culture & Society in 20th Century Europe ❖ The Politics of Welfare Reform in Continental Europe ❖ The Relationship between EU Law & National Law ❖ Memories of Industrial Labor in the Former Yugoslavia ❖ European Societies & European Social Processes ❖ Human Rights in the Old, New & Aspiring EU Member States ❖ Gender, Presidencies & Premierships in Europe

The Library of Social Science is organizing the publication exhibit for the conference. Located at the center of the meeting site (with coffee breaks) in the Omni Parker House Hotel's Press Room, our exhibit offers conferees a unique opportunity to buy books from a comprehensive collection of titles from the major publishers. Our professional exhibit managers actively promote titles by distributing flyers and catalogs, discussing books with attendees, selling books on-site using publisher-supplied order forms, and urging faculty to consider titles for course adoption and library acquisition.

Attendees at this meeting are avid book-buyers intent upon keeping up with the latest publications. This is the best opportunity of the year to promote your titles to a prime market of scholars and teachers seeking monographs and texts for research and course use on all aspects of the history, politics, economy, arts, cultures and identities of Europe.

Please fill in and fax your reservation now to hold a place for your press.
