Biennial Conference of the Society for the Psychological Study of Ethnic Minority Issues (APA Division 45)

May 24-26, 2012 ★ University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI

Division 45 is the major organization applying psychology to ethnic minority issues. Founded in 1986, the Society continues to grow and now has more than 1000 members. Their popular biennial conference covers psycho-social stress, HIV/AIDS, ethnic identity, multiculturalism, psychological assessment, substance abuse, racism, cultural diversity, sexuality and sex roles. This is one of the best opportunities of the year to promote your books on ethnicity, race, minority affairs, psychology and social policy. This is an essential meeting for publishers who exhibited at our 2011 National Multicultural Conference (see list on the second page of this flyer).

TYPICAL SESSIONS AND PANELS INCLUDE: Understanding Racism in the Lives of Ethnic Minority Communities ❖ The Criterion Problem in the Measurement of Cross-Cultural Counseling Competencies ❖ The Role of Race & Other Contextual Factors in Perceptions of Harassment & Bullying in the Workplace ❖ Community Partnerships for Urban Indian Health Disparities Research ❖ Qualitative Investigations of Ethnocultural Experience ❖ Recollections of Historical Injustice: Memories of the Japanese-American Incarceration Experience ❖ Utilization of Mental Health Services by Black Families ❖ Culture, Health & Emotion Regulation ❖ Expectations of Discrimination in School ❖ Resilience, Identity & Interdependence in the Face of Modern Racism ❖ Ethnic Identity & Acculturation ❖ Gendered Experiences of Race & Ethnicity ❖ The Complexity of Culture: Body Image of Asian American & Black American Women ❖ Still in the Shadows: Representations of Black Women in Film ❖ Changes in Racial Identity among African-American College Students Following Obama's Election ❖ Developing Racial/Ethnic Identity ❖ What Communities Can Teach Us about Reducing & Preventing Prejudice in Youth ❖ Racial & Ethnic Identity Research: Where Do We Go From Here? ❖ The Multiculturally Competent Training Program ❖ Culture & Identity as Resources for Mental Health among Ethnic Minority Young Adults ❖ Culture & Drinking Behaviors ❖ Asian Identity, American Identity & Life Satisfaction ❖ Racial Identity, Body Image & Objectifying Images ❖ Indicators of Resilience & Risk in Indigenous Youth in Canada & the US ❖ Characteristics of Incarcerated Native American Youth ❖ Discrimination, Acculturative Stress, Family Cohesion & Asian American Suicidality & Depression ❖ Communicating between the Academy & the Community ❖ Engaging African-Americans into Outpatient Mental Health Intervention ❖ The "Different" Body & Embodying Difference: Therapy with a Body Made Wrong by Society ❖ Building & Maintaining Relationships to Promote Optimal Mental Health & Positive Youth Development ❖ 21st Century US Latina/o Youth ❖ Bicultural Identities, Bicultural Involvement & Their Relation to Academic Attitudes in Latina/o Youth ❖ The Implications of Race, Ethnicity & Sexual Orientation for Societal Attitudes & Mental Health? ❖ The Interplay between Ethnic Identity, Awareness of White Privilege & Other Group Orientation ❖ Memories of Racial Stereotypes: Influences of Racial identity & Color-Blindness on Racial Microaggression ❖ Acculturation & Ethnicity's Relationship to Depression, Anxiety & Stress ❖ Critical Consciousness Development in Youth ❖ Fostering Social Action & Traditional Political Participation among Marginalized Youth ❖ Transferability of Awareness of Oppression ❖ Models of Identity & Academic Success among Ethnic Minority Adolescents ❖ Increasing Workforce Diversity in Disaster Psychology

The Library of Social Science is organizing the publication exhibit for the conference. Located near coffee breaks and registration at the center of the meeting site (the Michigan League building), our exhibit offers conferees a unique opportunity to buy books from a comprehensive collection of titles from the major publishers. Our professional exhibit managers actively promote titles by distributing flyers and catalogs, discussing books with attendees, selling books on-site using publisher-supplied order forms, and urging faculty to consider titles for course adoption and library acquisition.

Attendees at this meeting are avid book-buyers intent upon keeping up with the latest publications. This is the best opportunity of the year to promote your titles to a prime market of scholars and teachers seeking monographs and texts for research and course use on all aspects of ethnic and minority psychology, politics, history and identities.
